Village leader:

- A village leader is a strong headed woman who is from a majority religion. She wants help for her village (and not for the minority that she does not mention)
- There is chaos everywhere, and no help is reaching the vulnerable
- Limited access to services (schools, shelter, health clinics).
- Dead bodies are not taken to the morgue
- There are many missing people
- Increased fear of getting sick due to lack of clinics and dead bodies
- People do not know what to do as daily life has been disrupted
- All communication channels and mobiles lines are instable
- Violence and crime seem to have increased lately
- Some women are so stressed that they are not able to look after their children, e.g. they stopped breastfeeding and do not react when they cry
- Adults are generally short tempered
- Young men are hanging in the streets without much to do

School teacher:

- Originally from neighboring village who works in the community school. The school has been destroyed and you are teaching under the tree in makeshift school
- The children are crying a lot, they cannot concentrate
- Instead of playing they are fighting
- There seem to be an increase in children who comes to school with bruises, others are dirty and smelly
- Many children have lost contact with their family members. They don't know where their families are. Where will they go in the evening? Maybe someone will take them and adopt them to people in the west, maybe they will be trafficked. What should you do?
- Government is struggling paying salaries and many collogues have stopped working.
- For each teacher there are so many children now it is difficult to keep discipline
- The teacher is struggling taking care of his own family and children
- The teacher is feeling overwhelmed by the situation

Poor man

- A poor man who lost his wife and are living with his three young children now
- Have not eaten for days; appears weak; want to cry when mentioning the experience of losing his wife
- He cannot provide for the children, the oldest child is begging on the street
- The children only get one meal per day at the most
- The children are not going to school as he can't pay uniforms
- Do not know where to get aid from government
- Lost meaning of life
- Cannot contact family and friends in another village because he has no money for phone or other means of communication
- Ask RC team member to help

Young boy

- A 15 year old boy with his three younger siblings, the parents were away last week and he hasn't heard from them so far. No way to contact them
- The closest family member is an uncle who drinks. You don't feel safe being with him as he drinks. You hint that your uncle may beat you and your siblings when he is drunk.
- You do not know where to get aid from the government or other service provides
- You don't has access to your school
- Currently you are staying in a shelter in a makeshift camp
- You have been taking care of your younger siblings and 1 of them start getting sick and you do not know what to do
- In order to provide food for you siblings you have been taken bread from neigbours

A blind old woman

- A blind old woman who lost her only daughter, whom she was living with
- Appears sad, lonely and empty
- You do not how to carry on and support yourself
- You were completely dependent on your daughters care
- You don't feel you have anyone to turn to
- You do not have appetite to eat, or do anything in the past few days
- No hope and no meaning to live on
- You used to be a tailor and do handicrafts with your hands, but you have not been able to continue since you lost your eye sight. Now you can only knit a bit

A minority woman

- You are located a bit away from the rest of the community, in a small makeshift camp with other marginalized people
- You are from a minority tribe. You are living with your husband and your son.
- You are scared of the increased violence and you don't feel safe when getting water or buying food
- You have been called names by other villagers and felt not safe in the community
- Your child is being bullied by the other children and kept away from school
- You are told you are not eligible for government's aid
- You do not sleep at night because you worry about the future
- You and your husband has started to argue a lot
- Each Saturday you meet up with a group of woman from your tribe to have tea